

28-30 March 2022

RE-DWELL

Workshop #2

Budapest

Community participation in affordable and sustainable housing

Centre for Social Sciences, Institute for Sociology (Hungary)
1097, Budapest, Tóth Kálmán Street 4.

RE-DWELL "Delivering affordable and sustainable housing in Europe" has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 956082

The Budapest workshop aims to foster knowledge exchange between ESRs, supervisors and non-academic organisations on the challenges and opportunities on “Community participation in affordable and sustainable housing”.

Invited speakers from professional practice, academia and local administrations will address the workshop topic from multiple perspectives. The lectures will be followed by panel discussions and complemented by site visits. A roundtable with guest speakers will be open to the public via an online session.

In addition, the programme of activities will facilitate the further development of ESRs skills through training activities that are part of the structured courses (RMT2 and TS2).

Timetable	4
Programme	5
External participants	9

Timetable

There is a link for the online sessions of each day. Some sessions might have their own link.

*All local summer times CET

Day 0 Sunday, 27 March	17:00 to 18:00 20:00	Guided Tour Dinner
Day 1 Monday, 28 March Link to the session	09:30 to 10:00 10:00 to 12:30 12:30 to 13:00 13:00 to 14:00 14:00 to 17:00 17:00 to 19:00 20:00	Welcome Presentation of ESRs research projects ESR research plan diagrams exhibition Lunch Roundtable discussion Documentary and discussion Dinner
Day 2 Tuesday, 29 March Link to the session	09:30 to 13:00 13:00 to 14:00 14:00 to 15:45 16:00 to 18:00 18:00 to 19:00 20:00	RMT2 course Lunch Vocabulary Case study Budapest Site visit to the case study area Dinner
Day 3 Wednesday, 30 March Link to the session	09:30 to 12:30 12:30 to 13:00 13:00 to 14:00 14:00 to 15:45 16:00 to 17:00 17:00 to 18:00 18 :00 to 19:00 20:00	TS2 course ESR research plan diagrams exhibition Lunch Case study library Network communication processes Meeting ESRs and management board Game time Dinner

Day 0

Sunday, 27 March 2022

17:00 to 18:00

Guided Tour

Budapest Scientific sightseeing.

Guided tour to the party district of Budapest with the focus on affordable and sustainable housing.

Guide:

Gergely Olt, CSS

Meeting point:

Madách Imre square, Statue of Sisi. Meeting point next to the statue

20:00

Dinner

Day 1

Monday, 28 March 2022

A.0.12 – Conference room

Link to the session

09:30 to 10:00

Welcome

- Leandro Madrazo, Project Coordinator (La Salle-URL).
- Adrienne Csizmady (CSS).

10:00 to 12:30

Presentation of ESRs research projects

ESRs will present a summary of their research, including diagrams of the research plan.

Moderator:
Adrienne Csizmady, CSS

12:30 to 13:00

ESR research plan diagrams exhibition

Opening the exhibition.

13:00 to 14:00

Lunch

14:00 to 17:00

Roundtable discussion “Community participation”

14:00 to 16:00

Link to the session

Open panel discussion with invited speakers and audience: processes, obstacles and best practices for community participation in contemporary housing provision.

Moderator:
Gerard van Bortel, TUD
Meeting ID: 845 9644 3228
Passcode: 291193

16:15 to 17:00

Link to the session

Closed Q&A session with panel members and ESRs.

Meeting ID: 847 4861 9253
Passcode: 508440

17:00 to 19:00

Documentary and discussion

“No country for the poor”, documentary
(<https://www.imdb.com/title/tt8387020/>)

Moderator:
Lea Kószeghy, CSS

Participants of the discussion:
The City for All \(AVM\) group

20:00

Dinner

Day 2

Tuesday, 29 March 2022

A.0.12 – Conference room

Link to the session

09:30 to 13:00

RMT2 course: Comparative methodologies based on quantitative and qualitative data analysis

Start of the RMT2 course with a presentation of the objectives, structure, planning, activities, various individual and group tasks for the ESRs, and expected outcomes. After an introductory lecture, the ESRs will reflect in small groups on the added value that the key literature in the field of comparative housing research methodologies and tools has for their individual research.

Facilitator:
Gerard van Bortel, TUD

13:00 to 14:00

Lunch

14:00 to 15:45

Vocabulary

Presentation and discussion of peer-reviewed vocabulary entries.

Facilitator:
Leandro Madrazo, La Salle-URL

15:45 to 16:00

Coffee break

16:00 to 18:00

Case study Budapest: Community participation in affordable and sustainable housing

- Chances of introducing a housing cooperative model.
- Community participation in District 8.

Presenters:
József Hegedüs, MRI
Anna Kerékgyártó, RÉV 8

18:00 to 19:00

Site visit to the case study area

Walking tour in District 8.

Guide:
Csilla Sárkány, RÉV 8

20:00

Dinner

Day 3

Wednesday, 30 March 2022

A.0.12 – Conference room

Link to the session

09:30 to 12:30

TS2 Course: Entrepreneurship; professional and career development

Session 1 of TS2 will consist of mini-lectures and a workshop to introduce ESRs to entrepreneurship and enterprise, covering knowledge sharing, marketing and social enterprise. It will also address entrepreneurship concepts and approaches, highlighting entrepreneurial opportunities, ventures, and types of activity and indicators. The workshop will focus on how to undertake research using the Research Development Framework self-perfection questionnaire.

Facilitators:

Karim Hadjri, USFD
Krzysztof Nawratek, USFD

12:30 to 13:00

ESR research plan diagrams exhibition

Prize for the best designed, best illustrated, and easy to understand research plan diagrams, voted by ESRs and supervisors.

13:00 to 14:00

Lunch

14:00 to 15:45

Case study library

Presentation and discussion of documented case studies.

Facilitator:

Leandro Madrazo, La Salle-URL

15:45 to 16:00

Coffee break

16.00 to 17:00

Network communication processes

Session dedicated to share the latest information about newsletter, podcasts, social media, and other network communication channels.

Facilitators:

Leandro Madrazo, La Salle-URL
Alexandra Paio, ISCTE

17.00 to 18:00

Meeting ESRs and management board

Next steps, reflections on the network development, and questions and answers.

Facilitator:

Leandro Madrazo, La Salle-URL

18:00 to 19:00

Game time

Game on! Serious game for urban planning and affordable and sustainable housing.

Facilitators:
Andrea Marikovszky
and Annamária Babos,
CoHousing Budapest
Association

20:00

Dinner

External participants

Annamária Babos

Architect. Currently a PhD student at the Department of Urbanism, TU Budapest. Her topic is contemporary metropolitan forms of housing and liveability.

CoHousing Budapest is an association working in the field of community living which was established in 2019. Their members come from a wide variety of personal and professional backgrounds. They are connected through their knowledge and fascination for different forms of living together. Since 2012, many of their members have continuously worked on cohousing-related projects within the framework of the informal organisation “Közösségben Élni” and other volunteering initiatives.

Laura Colini

PhD in Urban, Regional and Environmental Design; Habil. in Urban Studies. Her intellectual work and activism covers socio-spatial inequalities, with a focus in recent years on public policies addressing migrants and refugees and housing. In the past, she worked in academic research in Italy, Germany, France, USA. She occasionally teaches and works in urban and social policies at EU level (e.g., URBACT, UIA, EU Urban Agenda Urban Poverty, Housing, Inclusion, Culture and Cultural Heritage et al.), and collaborates with NGOs, international organizations and independent civic initiatives in Europe mostly dealing with housing, homelessness, and migration. Co-founder of Tesseræ urban and social research, MiMetis SRL migration, member of the artist collective Oginoknauss and INURA.

József Hegedüs

Economist (MA) and sociologist (PhD), is a founding member and managing director of the Metropolitan Research Institute, Budapest. The Institute is a partner organisation of RE-DWELL.

He was co-organizer of the East European Working Group of the European Network for Housing Research from 1989 to 2015, and a member of the Housing Policy Council, a high-level advisory group in housing policy matters in Hungary from 1996 to 2012. Since 1994 he has been a part-time Associate Professor (from 2007 Adjunct Professor) at Corvinus University Budapest, and has also been teaching urban and municipal finance courses at ELTE University, Central European University's Summer School and the Budapest Technical University. He has widely published in journals and contributed to books dealing with urban and governance issues, and was co-editor of several books. He has been working in several international housing and urban research/technical assistance projects in the region (Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Russia, Kazakhstan, Georgia, etc.).

Anna Kerékgyártó

Sociology and urban studies at the University of Cambridge and the University of Amsterdam. Her theses focused on urban rehabilitation projects in Budapest and the development of Hungarian mortgage lending. She began working for the Metropolitan Research Institute in autumn 2020. She mainly contributes to housing related projects, such as the Budapest Housing Concept.

Part-time she is also employed by Rév8 Józsefváros Urban Rehabilitation and Development Company, where she is also working on housing issues.

Lea Kőszeghy

Sociologist PhD, research fellow of CSS, Research Department for Social Integration and Inequalities. Her research interest are sociology of urban planning, housing poverty, housing policy, socio-spatial inequalities, spatial segregation and exclusion.

Richard Lang

annabfotografie©

Full Professor of Social Enterprise and Innovative Regions at Bertha von Suttner Private University in St. Pölten, Austria. Previously, he was Assistant Professor at Johannes Kepler University Linz, where he completed his habilitation at the Institute of Innovation Management. Richard is also Honorary Senior Research Fellow in the School of Social Policy at the University of Birmingham, UK, where he was Acting Head of the Housing and Communities Research Group. For his international comparative study on innovations in cooperative housing, he was awarded the APART Fellowship of the Austrian Academy of Sciences as well as a Marie Curie Fellowship. Furthermore, he is co-founder of the Working Group "Collaborative Housing" within the European Network for Housing Research. He publishes his research in international journals such as European Planning Studies; Housing, Theory and Society; International Small Business Journal; Journal of Rural Studies and Technological Forecasting and Social Change.

Andrea Marikovszky

Andrea Marikovszky is a teacher, feminist, activist, member of the First Hungarian Association for Unconditional Basic Income and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF). Her main area of research is social imagination and vision.

CoHousing Budapest is an association working in the field of community living which was established in 2019. Their members come from a wide variety of personal and professional backgrounds. They are connected through their knowledge and fascination for different forms of living together. Since 2012, many of their members have continuously worked on cohousing-related projects within the framework of the informal organisation "Közösségben Élni" and other volunteering initiatives.

Gergely Olt

Sociologist and economist, junior research fellow, PhD candidate of CSS, Research Department for Social Integration and Inequalities. His research interests are gentrification, urban tourism, night time economy, urban movements, post-socialist transformation and comparative urban studies.

Jenny Pickerill

Professor of Environmental Geography and Head of Department of Geography at Sheffield University, England. Her research focuses on inspiring grassroots solutions to environmental problems and in hopeful and positive ways in which we can change social practices. She has published 3 books (Cyberprotest; Anti-war Activism; Eco-Homes) and over 30 articles on themes around eco-housing, eco-communities, social justice and environmentalism. She is currently completing a book on Eco-communities: Living Together Differently.

Csilla Sárkány

RÉV8-Józsefváros Urban Rehabilitation and Development Company is a publicly owned company, was established in 1997 with the aim to design and oversee urban development projects in the 8th district of Budapest. The district is located on the edge of the city centre and has a population of 77,000.

In the last two decades, RÉV8 has gained an expertise in both policy development and project management. The company has prepared numerous strategic and policy documents, and managed large scale urban rehabilitation projects on behalf of the local municipal government. RÉV8 was the first to adapt Western European models of complex urban rehabilitation in Hungary, addressing issues of urban segregation and deprivation, resulting in the first phase of the Magdolna Quarter Program, which has been followed by three further phases, right up to today. In designing its interventions, the company has a focus on social integration and community involvement, combining hard, infrastructural interventions with social work and community building efforts. The company has gained great experience in participatory planning methods on various scales —from the level of tenement buildings, up to the neighbourhood level—.

www.re-dwell.eu
info@re-dwell.eu